Our Wish: A Very Merry Christmas To All Review Readers

U.C. CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS

Christmas celebrations will commence at the local United Church on Sunday with Christmas Sunday School at 9.45 a.m. At 7.15 the annual Christmas service will commence, with carol singing when all the old favorite carols will be on the program. The usual sermon will be dispensed with and in its place the pastor will render Henry Van Dyke's famous work "The Story of The Other Wise Man." The choir will render Christmas music and the church is being appropriately decorated by the Young People's Society.

The celebration will continue on Tuesday, Dec. 27, when the annual Christmas social will be held in Wesley Hall at 8 p.m. sharp. This is one of those free-and-easy friendly affairs, without formality and without money-making. An enjoyable program of entertainment is being arranged and the Ladies' Aid will provide refreshments at the close. There will be no charge or collection and all friends of the church are cordially invited.

A feature of this gathering will be the burning of the mortgage on St. Paul's United Church which has been paid off as the result of strenuous effort during the past two years. The ceremony will be performed by Mr. James Bryce, an original trustee of the church, assisted by the president of the Ladies' Aid and the chairman of the committee of stewards.

On Thursday evening the Junior portion of the church will have their special celebration when the children of the Sunday School will be entertained for their annual Christmas treat in Wesley Hall. Lots of eats and a great program of merrymaking is being arranged for.

Sidney Social Club

The regular weekly meeting of the Sidney Social Club was held in the club rooms, Berquist Hall, on Wednesday evening of last week, when four tables of military 500 were occupied. Play for 20 hands resulted in the prizes being presented to Mr. and Mrs. Lidgate, Mr. Crossley and Mr. J. Storey. At the termination of the cards, Mr. N. Fralick served the refreshments, and a social half-hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Lidgate very kindly invited the members and friends of the club to hold the Tuesday evening meeting, on December 27, at her home on Third Street, the invitation being heartily accepted. It was proposed to hold a social evening following the card party.

Fulford Citizen Buried

By Review Representative
FULFORD HARBOUR, Dec. 22.—The funeral of the late Thomas Akerman of Fulford Harbour took place at St. Mary's Church, Fulford, on Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, Rev. J. W. Flinton officiating. The two hymns chosen were "Rock of Ages" and "Nearer, My God to Thee." A large number of friends and relations followed the coffin to its resting place in the graveyard adjoining the church, where the body was laid to rest. There were several floral tributes showing the esteem in which the late Mr. Akerman was held. The pallbearers were Messrs. A. J. Eaton, P. C. Mollet, J. Cabins, W. H. Lee, J. H. Lee and R. Maxwell.

OPENING DISPLAY

All avenues of traffic led to the Sidney Trading Company last Friday afternoon, Dec. 16, the event being a tea and the grand opening display of their Christmas goods. The store was very prettily decorated for the occasion with small Christmas trees, bells, streamers and lights, and stalls were very effectively arranged for the display of suggested Christmas gifts. A section of the counter on the east side of the store was very prettily arranged as a tea stall, where Mrs. G. A. Cochran and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, assisted by Mrs. Whidden and Mrs. Lantz, entertained the many guests from 2 o'clock until 6 with tea and cake.

The manager and staff were well rewarded by the excellent representation from Sidney and district, who availed themselves of the opportunity of visiting the store on this occasion.

U.C. LADIES' AID HELD ELECTION

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Sidney United Church was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. Douglas, East Road. There was a good attendance of members. The president, Mrs. Simister, occupied the chair and opened the meeting. The report read by the secretary, was adopted, and the financial statement presented by the treasurer proved very satisfactory. Six new members were welcomed into the new department, "The Home Membership." The arrangements were made for the decoration of the church for Christmas, and several other routine matters were brought up and disposed of. It was announced that the mortgage on the church had been paid off by the Ladies' Aid, and the ceremony of the burning of the mortgage will take place in Wesley Hall on Tuesday, Dec. 27. The Ladies' Aid is to be congratulated on the splendid way in which they have rallied together and achieved this object. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted in Mrs. Simister being re-elected president, Mrs. Ellis, vice-president; Mrs. J. T. Taylor, secretary, and Mrs. Homewood, treasurer. A dainty tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. Wilkinson, after which the meeting adjourned to meet next month, Jan. 11, at the home of Mrs. S. Brothour.

"To You"

Along the "Road to Yesterday"
Are quaint, old-fashioned flowers,
For-Get-Me-Nots and Rosemary,
Recalling golden hours.
And Christmas brings fond memories,
And longings stir anew
To walk "The Road of Yesterday"
With old-time friends like you.
May all your days be happy,
Your years be manifold,
Your life the sweetest story
That ever yet was told.

On Tuesday last the pupils at Formby House School gave a very enjoyable concert at the school when the sum of $15 was realized for the Cathedral fund. This is the third effort on the part of the pupils to help towards this noteworthy fund, they having raised up to date about $40 for this purpose. At the close of the program Mr. W. Scott spoke a few words of congratulations to Mrs. Oxenham and thanked the school for their kind donation towards the Cathedral fund.

"Salt Spring Island—The Switzerland of America" is a slogan that should be capitalized. Salt Spring has the goods. Let's tell the world.

SHOWER FOR GANGES GIRL

By Review Representative
GANGES, Dec. 22. The miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Hilda Cartwright, the vice-president of the Girls' Parish Guild, at the Vicarage on Monday last, was a very enjoyable evening when to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Flinton, the members of the Guild, with Miss Cartwright blindfolded, formed a procession and marched into the dining-room, where an enormous pink and white Christmas cracker lay on the table. This was filled with many beautiful and useful presents, which were presented to the bride-elect by Miss Hareau, the president, who spoke a few suitable words, after which a musical program was carried out: violin solo, Miss Hilda Cartwright; recitation, Miss Betty Kingsbury; vocal solo, Miss P. ### THE CHRISTMAS HOMECOMINGS

The Christmas present that counts most in many homes is to have the children come back for the holiday. The presents may be elaborate and expensive, and the dinner fixed up with the most scientific cookery and luscious variety of eatables, but if there are empty chairs while the boys and girls are far away in distant communities, the holiday misses something of its joy.

People should take a lot of trouble rather than miss the family reunions that are the happiest feature of this holiday. The crowds that throng the trains and boats show how strong the magnet is that draws the people back to their old homes.

Laughter and merriment run very high in many of these homes where the families have been reunited. Reverend seniors feel as if they were boys and girls again, as they reproduce the pranks of former days, and the old-timers frolic with the grandchildren as if they were kids again. May there be many such homecomings in the Saanich Peninsula and Gulf Islands.

This is the season of the year when our hearts and minds naturally turn to those who are near and dear to us, with an affection that apparently is greater than at any other period of the year.

PIONEERS ARE PREPARED FOR RECORD CROWD

The grand old-time dance of the Pioneer Society will be held in the Agricultural Hall, Saanich, on Wednesday, Dec. 28. The committee are making extensive preparations for a capacity attendance. This is fast becoming one of the big events of the year and many look forward to it with great enthusiasm, especially coming at this time of the year when the Christmas spirit prevails.

Benny Readings who was calling on a party who had a little sister four years old, who was soon tired of the conversation and curled up in the large chair with her kitten. Soon the cat was purring quite loud and it brought forth this remark: "You're parking now—why don't you switch off your engine?"

There are two other contenders looming up and as soon as tournaments are completed arrangements will be made without delay to determine the player to meet Mrs. McLean.

ANNUAL TREAT GIVEN PUPILS

The children of the Sidney Public School had their annual Christmas tree and party in Matthews' Hall on Tuesday evening.

The hall presented a festive appearance, the elaborate decorations being carried out by Mrs. Shade and Mrs. Homewood. A huge Christmas tree topped by a beautifully dressed fairy was placed at one end of the room and at either side were prettily decorated arches and wreaths of evergreen were placed at intervals around the room. When the children arrived at 5.30 a bountiful spread supper was ready in the dining-room, the table being decorated with tiny Christmas trees and candles and a color scheme carried out in red was in keeping with the festive season.

After supper various games and amusements were indulged in, the leaders being Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. Cowell, Miss May, Miss Houldsworth and Miss Stott. At about 8.15 Santa Claus (Mr. Wesley Cowell) arrived and the children filed up one by one for their Christmas candy and fruit, Santa having a hand-shake and a jolly message for each one. Three cheers for good old Santa brought a very successful evening to a close. Mrs. Mounce acted as convener and much praise is due her for the splendid way arrangements were carried out. The supper committee consisted of Mrs. Gilman (convener), Mrs. J. Ramsay, Mrs. Deilday, Mrs. Le Vack, Mrs. Holdridge, Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Wilson.

Promptly at midnight refreshments were served in the dining-room by Mrs. Calvert, the tables being prettily decorated with autumn foliage. The dance proved a very enjoyable and novel affair and the committee in charge were Mrs. Copithorne, Mr. Lee and Mr. McLean.

The evening star shines o'er the grave
Of one we loved, but could not save.
God called her home, it was His will,
But in our hearts she liveth still.

ANNUAL NEW YEAR'S DANCE

By Review Representative

DEEP COVE, Dec. 22—The regular weekly card party was held on Monday night but owing to the inclemency of the weather only four tables were in play, the ladies' prize going to Miss Dorothy Calvert and the gentlemen's to Mr. John Copithorne. Mrs. Calvert served refreshment at the conclusion of the game and a social half hour was enjoyed.

Next Monday evening being Christmas Night there will be no card party at the hall. The annual New Year's Eve carnival ball will be held in the club hall Friday, December 30th. Schofield's three-piece orchestra will be in attendance from 9 to 2 and the dance committee are planning elaborate decorations and novel attractions to make the dance a success.
